RACE

The North Aegean International Sailing Week is one of the most famous racing sailing summer events in Greece, it includes a weekly schedule combining 5-7 technical, inshore and offshore races, indicative of both the sporting and racing orientation of the event, which highlights the overall winner through various races. The Thessaloniki Offshore Racing Club in boasting years of experience, with the support of the local Nautical Club of Skopelos, offers a week full of unique sailing experiences and fun for all crews.

Where;

Where green meets the blue !!

The picturesque island of Skopelos, in the middle of the N. Sporades complex of islands, provides for a great sailing venue with medium breezes, moderate seas and courses selection amongst the all green islands of Sporades. Pine trees hanging over the sea side, golden beaches and turquoise waters make this paradise island ideal for a sports tourism destination for crews, families and friends!

When;

When you need it the most!!

At the beginning of August, when the heat boosts your sailing mood, the breezes are better and the vacations are ON !

THESSALONIKI OFFSHORE RACING CLUB

The Thessaloniki Offshore Racing Club (Th.O.R.C.) was founded in 2004 opting in the development and spreading of offshore sailing in Thessaloniki and the region of the Northern Aegean Sea. The Club aims to host sailing races attracting Greek and foreign yachts and crews, as well as organizing cultural events in the ports and the areas visited during the races. The Club is distinguished all over Greece for the quality and number of races conducted each year, with its sailors having experienced significant distinctions in Greek and international sailing events.

Each year the crown event of the Club is the North Aegean International Sailing Week, which is held on August at Skopelos island, in the popular island complex of Northern Sporades

11 SUCCESFULL EVENTS

The North Aegean International Sailing Week is held for boats measured under ORC International and ORC Club. Yachts are expected from all over Greece and abroad, with more or less experienced crews, older or younger sailors, teams of champions to groups of schools, all of which are welcomed to meet in beautiful Skopelos island and test their sailing, tactics and endurance skills of sailing for 5 days, while simultaneously enjoying their holidays with family, or friends in a fixed base sailing event that can offer it!
